

From the painting by
Jan Matejko (1838-1893)

October 3, 2025

FRIDAY at 6:30 PM

Polish Center of Wisconsin

6941 S 68th St, Franklin, WI

Millennium Lecture

Crowning Achievements: On the Millennium of the First Polish Coronation

by Dr. Patrice Dabrowski

Harvard Ukrainian Research Institute

Author of POLAND: The First Thousand Years

Patrice M. Dabrowski
Poland
THE FIRST THOUSAND YEARS

Sharing insights into events of the distant past, Dr. Dabrowski will analyze the illustrious reign and coronation of the first Polish king, Bolesław I the Brave (Bolesław Chrobry).

She also will explore the questions: What is the significance of the year 1025 for the Polish state, then and now? Is the millennium Poles have been celebrating this year on par with the first Polish millennium, celebrated in 1966?

Free admission, donations encouraged.

Door opens at 6 pm, lecture begins at 6:30 pm

Reception follows the lecture

Organized by the

Polish American Congress, Wisconsin Division, with support of the Polish Center Of Wisconsin and Polanki

More information: <http://pacwisconsin.com> or (414) 439-3830